

Nan McIntyre is the Chief Development Officer for ShoreBank Enterprise Cleveland where she oversees fund raising, monitoring and compliance, and marketing and communications. Nan has been with ShoreBank Enterprise for eight years. Prior to joining ShoreBank Enterprise, Nan worked in economic development at MAGNET (formerly CAMP, Inc.) and for the business and industry training division of Cuyahoga Community College. She also has several years of experience in the corporate sector.

Nan holds an undergraduate degree from Marygrove College in Detroit MI and a Masters of Adult Education from Cleveland State University. She is an active member of the Cleveland community where she serves on the Board for Entrepreneurs for Sustainability (E4S) and is an Advisory Board member of the Ohio State University Extension for Cuyahoga County.