

Cornell Calhoun joined ShoreBank Enterprise Cleveland in 2004 as the Glenville Enterprise Center Manager. Prior to joining ShoreBank Enterprise, Cornell served as an Assistant Terminal Manager for Greyhound Lines for 15 years, as a Transportation Manager for the Cuyahoga County Board of Retardation and Developmental Disabilities, as the Director of the HOPE Grant for the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and as a teacher and basketball coach for Cleveland Public Schools. When Cornell is not working at SEC, he is an accomplished playwright, director, and actor.

Cornell holds a BA in English from Talladega College and an MA in Education from Ursuline College.